Retreat #2 - April 29, 30, May 1

Located in Newport on the Beautiful Central Oregon Coast

Page Johnson is a National Award Winning Professional Longarm Quilter from Rosemount, Minnesota. She runs two machines: an A1 and a Gammil Statler Stitcher. She is a Certified Creative Studio Trainer and teaches several quilting classes nationally. She describes herself as an "off the wall out-of-the-box" quilter. Her teaching style is both personable and infectious. And, her knowledge and creativity is awesome! She is the type of teacher who believes in her students and sincerely wants to see them succeed. She has taken Creative Studio to the next level. Her unique approach to creating "custom" looking Edge to Edge designs and high price custom quilting in a fraction of the time is something every Statler owner should know. Page also demonstrates how simple it is to add texture and background fills to your quilts and how to take your custom quilting to the next level using the "Piece O'Grid".

Day 1: Arrive in Newport. We will meet at the host hotel for a premier Oregon Coast group dinner. After dinner we will meet together for Show & Share/Design Dilemma mini class with Page. You will be blown away by her easy Design Dilemma process!

This retreat is for users of Creative Studio version 2.0. If you are not using CS 2.0 and are attending the retreat, please load the software and read the updates to the manual. There is no retreat time set aside for "How to Use 2.0"

Have you taken classes from Page before? If so, which ones:

The Piece O'Grid is an 18 x 36 inch lightweight clear plastic with quarter inch grid to use on the top of your quilt. Page will be demoing this at the retreat and all the fun and exciting things she uses it for. Are you interested in purchasing the Piece O'Grid? (It is not mandatory to have this for the retreat)

You can view all of Page's classes at www.thequiltingpage.com. The class schedule has not been set for the retreat yet. We would like to hear from you so that Page can somewhat customize this special retreat just for her students. Please let us know your thoughts, concerns, and/or requests!
